

Alert on fraudulent activities

It has been brought to our attention that some fraudulent messages are circulating, requiring payment in order to receive goods held by Cargo Security International. THESE ARE NOT LEGITIMATE. Cargo Security International is a print and online news service and has no business related to the holding of cargo.

We strongly advise you to NOT PAY ANY MONEY in response to an email or telephone call regarding payment for release of goods and to contact your local police.

These messages are usually sent via email. They typically advise the victims that they have been made a beneficiary and have valuable goods waiting for them, for which they need to pay a release fee. Victims have also been told by the fraudsters that their lives are in danger unless payments are made. Emails and paperwork are sent using the Cargo Security International logo and website details without our consent. Such requests are not made or generated by Cargo Security International or are in any way associated with Cargo Security International or Petrosport Limited.

Furthermore, Petrosport Limited, as well as any of its affiliates, disclaims all responsibility with respect to any expense, loss, and/or damage of any kind, which might have occurred in connection with any such fraudulent activities.

REMEMBER, WE WILL NEVER ASK YOU FOR MONEY FOR THE RELEASE OF CARGO.
ANY SUCH EMAIL OR TELEPHONE CALL IS CERTAINLY A SCAM.
